¹ Local Law #1 of 2004 requires applicants to the Planning Board, Zoning Board of Appeals and Town Board to establish an escrow account to reimburse all costs incurred by the Town for the retention of engineering, planning, legal, technical or environmental consultants or professionals, including Town officials and Town Committees, to assist the Town in its review of matters presented by the applicant, including expenses related to any advertising, mailings or required SEQRA review. Planning Board fees do not cover charges such as required mailing costs and costs covered under the escrow account outlined above as stipulated in zoning regulations.

² Pursuant to the Ancram Zoning Law, certain applications may require an inspection escrow. The Ancram Town Board has set the Commercial Site Plan Inspection Escrow at $1000. If additional funds are needed for an inspection escrow account the applicant will be notified. Any unused escrow funds will be returned to the applicant after project completion. The Ancram Planning Board may impose inspection escrows for other types of applications.

³ Requires approval by both the Planning Board and the Building Department
